

PROFESSIONAL
CREENTIAL
SERVICES, INC.

COMPUTER BASED TESTING INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

MASSACHUSETTS PSYCHOLOGY JURISPRUDENCE EXAMINATIONEXAMINATION PERIOD

Candidates have 90 days from the issuance of their authorization letter to take the examination.

TEST CENTERS

To locate the nearest testing center please visit www.psexams.com or call PSI. In order to schedule an examination appointment, please call PSI, 1-800-211-2754. When calling the toll-free number, please provide your name and identify yourself as a Massachusetts Psychology Jurisprudence examination candidate.

ARRIVAL AT THE TEST CENTER

Please plan to arrive at the testing center at least 30 minutes before the scheduled starting time. This extra time is needed to check in and to familiarize yourself with the testing environment.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

1. You must present your specific Authorization Letter and one form of identification with a photograph and your signature (i.e. driver's license, government-issued identification card, or passport) in order to be admitted to the examination room. The name submitted on your scheduling form must be an exact duplication of the name on your identification.
2. The identification must be current, clearly recognizable or you will not be admitted to test. If your photo does not have a signature, you must bring a second form of signature identification. If you do not have proper identification, you will not be admitted to test.

TEST SECURITY MEASURES

Candidates will always be observed during the examination by test center staff. In addition, the examination session may be video recorded.

Candidates will be required to leave all personal belongings outside of the testing room. No food, beverages, tobacco/vape use, notebooks, magazines, reference materials, backpacks, briefcases, hats, caps or electronic devices such as cameras, MP3 Players, radios, recording equipment, cell phones, smart phones, graphing calculators, smart watches/fitness trackers, smart glasses are not permitted in the examination room. If any of the aforementioned items are found on a candidate, the test center staff will collect it until the end of the examination and provide a written report of the incident to PCS. The Board will then be notified of the testing irregularity.

No visitors, guests or children are permitted in the examination room.

NAME OR ADDRESS CHANGE

Any name or address change should be reported to PCS immediately.

RESCHEDULE POLICY

Candidates who have scheduled an examination appointment with PSI and wish to reschedule must notify PSI at least three working days prior to the scheduled test date. Examinations scheduled within the three-day window will not have the opportunity to reschedule.

Examination fees are forfeited if you fail to appear for your scheduled examination or you are not admitted due to lack of proper identification, as defined in this document.

INCLEMENT WEATHER / EMERGENCY POLICY

In the event of inclement weather or an emergency event, please contact PSI to ascertain the status of the test center. Test center closings rarely occur. If the test center is open and you choose not to appear for testing, your examination fee will be forfeited. If PSI must cancel or delay, you will be notified and rescheduled at no additional cost.

EXAMINATION CONTENT

The Massachusetts Psychology Jurisprudence exam is based on the following reference materials. These materials are available from the State Board's website <https://www.mass.gov/lists/statutes-and-regulations-psychologists#psychology-jurisprudence-book->

The examination is a one-hour closed book examination. The examination consists of 25 multiple-choice, four-choice test questions. In addition to these 25 questions, there may be pre-test questions. Pre-test questions are randomly placed within a test form to gain additional statistical information and are not computed in your score results. There is no penalty for wrong answers therefore it is to your advantage to answer every test question.

EXAMINATION RESULTS

You will be notified of your score results at the testing center. You will receive an official score report from PCS within ten business days. If you have met all other requirements for licensure, you will receive information via email about how to pay the final licensure fee. If you fail the examination, you must wait 30 days before you can retake the examination. After each subsequent failure, you must wait 90 days before retaking the exam.